Vice-Chairman: Tiburcio Carías, Jr. (Honduras).
Rapporteur: Mahmood Shafqat (Pakistan).
These officers were elected on 1 January 1956 but continued their terms of office through 1957 as there was no interim period between the eleventh and twelfth regular sessions of the General Assembly.

DISARMAMENT COMMISSION
The members of the Disarmament Commission for 1957 comprised the members of the Security Council and Canada, represented as follows:

Government Rapporteur: Mahmood Shafqat (Pakistan).

UNITED NATIONS EMERGENCY FORCE (UNEF)
On 4 November 1956, the General Assembly, by resolution 998(ES-I), asked the Secretary-General for a plan for establishing, with the consent of the nations concerned, an emergency international force to secure and supervise the cessation of hostilities resulting from the penetration of Israel armed forces into Egyptian territory and the military operations conducted by France and the United Kingdom against Egyptian territory. On 5 November 1956, by resolution 1000(ES-I), the Assembly established a United Nations Command for the United Nations Emergency Force (UNEF) to secure and supervise the cessation of hostilities. It was to act in accordance with all the terms of General Assembly resolution 997(ES-I) of 2 November 1956 which, inter alia, called for: a cease-fire and the halting of the movement of military forces and arms into the area; the withdrawal of all forces behind the armistice lines and the observance of the armistice agreements; and, upon a cease-fire being effective, the reopening of the Suez Canal and the restoration of secure freedom of navigation.

In accordance with the Assembly's resolution 1125 (XI) of 2 February 1957, following the withdrawal of forces, UNEF was stationed on the Egyptian-Israel Armistice Demarcation Line.

On 5 November 1956, the General Assembly appointed Major-General E. L. M. Burns as the Chief of the Command.

As of 31 December 1956, the Force was composed of units voluntarily contributed by the following United Nations Member States: Brazil, Canada, Colombia, Denmark, India, Norway, Sweden and Yugoslavia. A contingent from Indonesia was withdrawn in September 1957 and a contingent from Finland in December 1957.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON THE UNITED NATIONS EMERGENCY FORCE
The Advisory Committee on the United Nations Emergency Force, established by the General Assembly on 7 November 1956 (by resolution 1001 (ES-I) ), was to develop those aspects of the planning of the Force and its operation not already dealt with by the Assembly and not falling within the area of the direct responsibility of the Chief of the Command. It was empowered to request the convening of the Assembly and to report to the Assembly whenever matters arose which, in its opinion, were of such urgency and importance as to require Assembly consideration.

Members: Brazil, Canada, Ceylon, Colombia, India, Czechoslovakia, Egypt, India, Italy, Mexico, Norway, Poland, Tunisia, Yugoslavia.
Norway, Pakistan, serving under the chairmanship of the Secretary-General.

COMMITTEE ON THE FINANCING OF THE UNITED NATIONS EMERGENCY FORCE

SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON THE PROBLEM OF HUNGARY
Members: Australia (K. C. O. Shann, Rapporteur); Ceylon (R. S. S. Gunewardene); Denmark (Alsing Andersen, Chairman); Tunisia (Mongi Slim); Uruguay (Enrique Rodriguez Fabregat).

GENERAL ASSEMBLY'S SPECIAL REPRESENTATIVE ON THE HUNGARIAN PROBLEM
On 14 September 1957, by resolution 1133(XI), the General Assembly asked the President of its eleventh session, Prince Wan Waithayakon, as its special representative on the Hungarian question, to take such steps as he deemed appropriate to achieve the objectives of the United Nations in accordance with the General Assembly’s resolutions on the Hungarian question (resolutions 1004(ES-II), of 4 November 1956; 1005(ES-II), of 9 November 1956; 1127(XI), of 21 November 1956; 1131(XI), of 12 December 1956; 1132(XI), of 10 January 1957. It also asked him to consult with the Special Committee on Hungary and to report and make recommendations to the General Assembly.

PANEL FOR INQUIRY AND CONCILIATION
The Panel, established by the General Assembly in 1949, by resolution 268 D (III), consists of qualified persons, designated by their States to serve a term of five years, who are readily available to assist the United Nations organs or States parties to a controversy in the settlement of disputes and situations by serving on commissions of inquiry or of conciliation.

The following persons have been designated to be on the panel:

High Commissioner: Auguste Lindt. Deputy High Commissioner: James M. Read. Director: Marcel Pages.

On 26 November 1957, the General Assembly decided to continue the Office of the High Commissioner for five years beginning 1 January 1959.

UNITED NATIONS REFUGEE FUND (UNREF)

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Members: Australia, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Colombia, Denmark, France, Federal Republic of Germany, Greece, Iran, Israel, Italy, Netherlands, Norway, Switzerland, Turkey, United Kingdom, United States, Vatican City, Venezuela. Officers: Fourth Session: N. Tuncel (Turkey), Chairman; J. Cappelen (Norway), Vice-Chairman; N. Currie (Australia), Rapporteur. Fifth Session: J. Cappelen (Norway), Chairman; A. Valladao (Brazil), Vice-Chairman; N. Currie (Australia), Rapporteur. Sixth (Special) Session: J. Cappelen (Norway), Chairman; A. Patriota (Brazil), Vice-Chairman; N. Currie (Australia), Rapporteur.

On 26 November 1957, by resolution 1166(XII), the General Assembly decided that operations under UNREF should be discontinued after 31 December 1958 except for the orderly completion of those projects started but not completed before that date. It also asked the Economic and Social Council to set up, not later than its twenty-sixth session, in mid-1958, an Executive Committee of the High Adjourned sine die on 5 August 1952.
Commissioner's Programme to replace the UNREF Executive Committee. This new body was to consist of representatives of between 20 and 25 Members of the United Nations or members of any of the specialized agencies, elected by the Council. Its tasks, briefly, were set forth as follows: to give directives to the High Commissioner for liquidating UNREF; to advise him, at his request, on the exercise of his functions and on the appropriateness of international aid through his office to help solve specific refugee problems unsolved or arising after 31 December 1958; to authorize him to appeal for funds for solving these problems and approve assistance projects in this regard; to give him directives on the use of an emergency fund not exceeding $500,000.

AD HOC COMMITTEE ON A SPECIAL UNITED NATIONS FUND FOR ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

This Committee, set up by General Assembly resolution 923(X), ceased to exist after submitting its final report to the twelfth session of the General Assembly and so completing the task assigned to it (resolution 1219(XII), of 14 December 1957).

PREPARATORY COMMITTEE FOR THE SPECIAL FUND

On 14 December 1957, by resolution 1219(XII), the General Assembly decided that a Special Fund be established as an expansion of existing technical assistance and development activities of the United Nations and the specialized agencies so as to provide systematic and sustained assistance essential for the integrated technical, economic and social development of the less developed countries. The operations of the Fund were to be directed towards enlarging the scope of United Nations technical aid programmes so as to include special projects in certain basic fields.

Looking forward to the Fund's establishment as of 1 January 1959, the Assembly set up a Preparatory Committee with the following functions: to define the basic fields for assistance which the Special Fund should encompass, and, within these fields, the types of projects eligible for assistance; to define the administrative and operational machinery to be recommended for the Fund, including any changes required in the legislation and procedures of the Expanded Technical Assistance Programme; to ascertain the extent to which Governments would be willing to contribute to the Fund. It was to undertake these tasks, taking into account the various principles laid down by the Assembly for the Special Fund and the views and suggestions put forward by Governments. The result of the Preparatory Committee's work were to be reported together with recommendations to the mid-1958 session of the Economic and Social Council, which would transmit the report with its own comments to the Assembly later in 1958 for final action.

UNITED NATIONS COMMISSIONER FOR SUPERVISION OF ELECTIONS IN TOGOLAND UNDER FRENCH ADMINISTRATION

The General Assembly, on 29 November 1957, by resolution 1182(XII), decided to elect a United Nations Commissioner to supervise the elections to the Legislative Assembly of the French-administered Trust Territory of Togoland to be held in 1958. Assisted by observers and staff appointed by the Secretary-General in consultation with him, the Commissioner was directed to report the results of the elections to the Trusteeship Council for transmission to the General Assembly's thirteenth session. On 14 December 1957, the General Assembly elected Max H. Dorsinville (Haiti) to this position.

SUB-COMMITTEE ON THE REVISION OF THE QUESTION NAIRE (relating to Trust Territories)

COMMITTEE ON SOUTH WEST AFRICA

Brazil: Donatello Greico, Rapporteur.
On 13 December 1957, the General Assembly, acting on the recommendation of its Fourth Committee, approved the election of Egypt and Indonesia (to replace Syria and Thailand) and the re-election of Uruguay, each for a three-year term beginning 1 January 1958.

The membership of the Committee on South West Africa for 1958 is thus: Brazil, Egypt, Ethiopia, Finland, Indonesia, Mexico, Pakistan, United States and Uruguay.

GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE ON SOUTH WEST AFRICA

On 25 October 1957, by resolution 1143(XII), the General Assembly decided to set up a three-member Good Offices Committee on South West Africa to discuss with the Government of the Union of South Africa a basis for an agreement which would continue to accord an international status to the Territory of South West Africa. The resolution named the United States and the United Kingdom to the Committee and specified that a third member be nominated by the President of the twelfth session of the Assembly. On 1 November 1957, the President nominated Brazil as the third member.

Members: Vasco T. Leitao da Cunha (Brazil), Sir Charles Noble Arden-Clarke (United Kingdom), Walter N. Walmsley (United States).

REGIONAL ECONOMIC COMMISSIONS

There are three regional economic commissions:
Economic Commission for Europe (ECE)
Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East (ECAFE)
Economic Commission for Latin America (ECLA)

At its twelfth session the General Assembly recommended, by resolution 1155 (XII), that the Economic and Social Council at its twenty-fifth session (15 April 1958) give prompt and favourable consideration to the establishment of an Economic Commission for Africa.

The membership, principal subsidiary bodies and chief representatives attending sessions of ECE, ECAFE, and ECLA during 1957 were as follows:

ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR EUROPE

Members: Albania, Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Byelorussian SSR, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, Finland, France, Federal Republic of Germany, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Spain, Sweden, Turkey, Ukrainian SSR, USSR, United Kingdom, United States, Yugoslavia.

Arrangements have been made, too, for the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) to take part in the work of ACC.

In 1957, the Bank's representative also participated... in the work of the Committee on behalf of the President of the International Finance Corporation (IFC). Representatives of the United Nations Korean Relief Agency (UNKRA), the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF), the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, and the secretariat of the Contracting Parties to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), and the Executive Chairman of the Technical Assistance Board have also attended ACC meetings.

TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE BOARD

The Technical Assistance Board (TAB) consists of an Executive Chairman and the executive heads, or their representatives, of the organizations sharing in the funds for the Expanded Programme of Technical Assistance (United Nations, ILO, FAO, UNESCO, WHO, ICAO, ITU, WMO). Although the International Bank and the International Monetary Fund do not share in the funds for the Expanded Programme and are not titular members of the Board, they are invited to participate in the meetings of the Board and to co-operate fully in promoting the objectives of the Programme.

Executive Chairman: David Owen.

INTERIM-CO-ORDINATING COMMITTEE FOR INTERNATIONAL COMMODITY ARRANGEMENTS

Edwin McCarthy, Chairman (nominated by the contracting parties to GATT)
Georges Peter (appointed by the Secretary-General for his experience with non-agricultural primary commodities)
Walter Miller (appointed by the Secretary-General for his experience in problems of less developed countries whose economies depend on production and international marketing of primary commodities)
R. H. Roberts and T. C. Robinson (alternate) (nominated by FAO)

THE TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL

The Trusteeship Council consists of the following:

Members of the United Nations administering Trust Territories.

Permanent members of the Security Council which do not administer Trust Territories.

As many other members elected for a three-year term by the General Assembly as will ensure that the membership of the Council is equally divided between United Nations Members which administer Trust Territories and Members which do not.

The following were the members of the Council during 1957:

Members administering Trust Territories: Australia, Belgium, France, Italy, New Zealand, United Kingdom, United States.
