

Commission; and the development of international travel, its present increasing volume and future prospects.

International Confederation of Free Trade Unions, on: the economic development of under-developed countries; development of international travel, its present increasing volume and future prospects; allegations regarding infringements of trade union rights; and the United Nations Children's Fund.

International Co-operative Alliance, on: the economic development of under-developed countries: co-operatives.

International Federation of Christian Trade Unions, on: the economic development of under-developed countries; and the development of international travel, its present increasing volume and future prospects.

World Federation of Trade Unions, on: the economic development of under-developed countries; and the development of international travel, its present increasing volume and future prospects.

World Federation of United Nations Associations, on: the United Nations Children's Fund.

World Veterans Federation, on: the report of the Population Commission.

No statements on Council agenda items were made to the Council Committee on Non-Governmental Organizations during the Council's twenty-third session by organizations with category B consultative status or by organizations on the Register.

At the Council's twenty-fourth session, held between 2 July and 2 August 1957, statements on agenda items, as indicated below, were made by the following NGO's with category A consultative status:

International Confederation of Free Trade Unions, on: the world economic situation; the world social situation; the financing of economic development; international commodity problems; and the annual report of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees.

International Federation of Christian Trade Unions, on: the world economic situation; the world social situation; sources of energy as a means of economic development, the financing of economic development; and the annual report of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees.

World Federation of Trade Unions, on: the world economic situation; the world social situation; the financing of economic development; and the report of the Commission on the Status of Women.

World Federation of United Nations Associations, on: human rights; and the annual report of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees.

World Veterans Federation, on: the world social situation; human rights; and the annual report of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees.

The following NGO's with category B consultative status were also heard during the Council's twenty-fourth session, by the Council Committee on Non-Governmental Organizations:

Anti-Slavery Society (United Kingdom), on: human rights.

Catholic International Union for Social Service, on: the world social situation.

Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America, on: the world social situation; and the financing of economic development.

Co-ordinating Board of Jewish Organizations, on: the annual report of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees.

International Association of Penal Law, on: the world social situation.

International Conference of Catholic Charities, on: the annual report of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees.

International Council of Women, on: the development and co-ordination of the economic, social and human rights programmes and activities of the United Nations and the specialized agencies as a whole; the report of the Commission on the Status of Women; and the annual report of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees.

International Law Association, on: human rights.

International Road Federation, on: technical assistance.

International Society for Criminology, on: the world social situation.

International Society of Social Defence, on: the world social situation.

Society of Comparative Legislation (France), on: the world social situation.

World Union of Catholic Women's Organiza-