The resolution (500(V)) adopted by the General Assembly at its 330th plenary meeting on 18 May read:

"The General Assembly,

"Noting the report of the Additional Measures Committee dated 14 May 1951,

"Recalling its resolution 498(V) of 1 February 1951,

"Noting that:

"(a) The Additional Measures Committee established by that resolution has considered additional measures to be employed to meet the aggression in Korea,

"(b) The Additional Measures Committee has reported that a number of States have already taken measures designed to deny contributions to the military strength of the forces opposing the United Nations in Korea,

"(c) The Additional Measures Committee has also reported that certain economic measures designed further to deny such contributions would support and supplement the military action of the United Nations in Korea and would assist in putting an end to the aggression,

"1. Recommends that every State:

"(a) Apply an embargo on the shipment to areas under the control of the Central People's Government of the People's Republic of China and of the North Korean authorities of arms, ammunition and implements of war, atomic energy materials, petroleum, transportation materials of strategic value, and items useful in the production of arms, ammunition and implements of war;

"(b) Determine which commodities exported from its territory fall within the embargo, and apply controls to give effect to the embargo;

"(c) Prevent by all means within its jurisdiction the circumvention of controls on shipments applied by other States pursuant to the present resolution;

"(d) Co-operate with other States in carrying out the purposes of this embargo;

"(e) Report to the Additional Measures Committee, within thirty days and thereafter at the request of the Committee, on the measures taken in accordance with the present resolution;

"2. Requests the Additional Measures Committee:

"(a) To report to the General Assembly, with recommendations as appropriate, on the general effectiveness of the embargo and the desirability of continuing, extending or relaxing it;

"(b) To continue its consideration of additional measures to be employed to meet the aggression in Korea, and to report thereon further to the General Assembly, it being understood that the Committee is authorized to defer its report if the Good Offices Committee reports satisfactory progress in its efforts;

"3. Reaffirms that it continues to be the policy of the United Nations to bring about a cessation of hostilities in Korea, and the achievement of United Nations objectives in Korea by peaceful means, and requests the Good Offices Committee to continue its good offices."
